

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT FUND GUIDANCE

What is the Sustainable Development Fund?

SSE Renewables created the Sustainable Development Fund as part of its voluntary community benefit arrangements from its onshore renewable energy developments in Perth and Kinross built from 2013 onwards, including Calliachar Wind Farm.

Who can apply to the fund?

To be eligible for funding, your project must benefit communities that lie wholly within the Perth and Kinross local authority area. You don't need to be a registered charity to apply, but your organisation must have a constitution, at least three board/committee members, and not be set up for individual profit.

What is the fund value and timescale?

In this round the fund is worth a total of £250,000. You can apply for a grant of anything from a minimum of £30,000 up to a maximum of the fund's total value in this round.

Round opens:	Friday 4 April 2025
Deadline for applications:	Monday 16 June 2025
Award decisions made:	early October 2025

What are the aims of the fund?

The fund provides support for strategic projects in the Perth and Kinross region and any successful application must meet one or more of the following outcomes:

- Creating opportunities: Create opportunities for education and employment through activities that develop skills and improve an individual's chance of entering the workplace.
- Empowering communities: Empower communities to become more resilient through measures which demonstrate long-term social, environmental or economic improvements.
- Sustainable places: Stimulate meaningful regeneration to improve or enhance local infrastructure, landscape, biodiversity or heritage and make a lasting difference to the places we live, work and visit.

In addition, all applications are expected to consider and demonstrate how their project supports the following overarching ambitions of the Fund Panel:

- How the project will help the region in its journey towards a net zero future. For example, by improving energy efficiency, reducing waste, or delivering services in a way that reduces or removes the use of fossil fuels.
- How the project will build the knowledge, skills and experience that the third sector needs to support a sustainable region. For example, by developing and enhancing social enterprises, improving the sustainability of community assets, or increasing collaboration between community projects and services.

How can I apply?

Applications are made through our online Community Investment Portal. Visit the Sustainable Development Fund webpage and scroll to find the 'Apply' button. You will be asked to confirm your group's eligibility to apply before proceeding to the application form.

Who sits on the decision-making Panel?

The SSE Renewables Sustainable Development Fund Panel will review applications and determine which projects should receive funding. The Panel comprises:

- Rt Hon Lord Jack McConnell (Chairperson)
- Damien Yeates, Chief Executive, Skills Development Scotland
- Professor James Hunter, Emeritus Professor of History, UHI
- Stuart Hood, Director of Business Operations & Performance, SSE Renewables

We are currently selecting two further Panel members.

What are the Panel looking for?

The Panel will review the application based on its relevance to the Fund outcomes and themes set out above and appraise the social, economic and environmental impact it could have to the local area. This will be the primary form of assessment. The Panel will be looking for projects with the potential to deliver transformational change.

Consideration will also be given to the extent to which applications demonstrate:

- Value for money – evidence that the project will have a significant impact for the amount requested.
- Community involvement – evidence that the relevant community is engaged in the development and implementation of the project. For example, through surveys, service user involvement, community consultations, open days, letters of support or volunteering opportunities.
- Financial viability – evidence that the project can be maintained beyond the period of grant funding.
- Evidence of need – demonstration of a real financial need for the application and evidence that the applicant has leveraged other sources of external funding.
- Match funding – in exceptional circumstances, the Panel may consider applications up to 100% of total costs but would encourage groups to leverage other external funding towards the project.

What is expected of funded projects?

- Each funded project will gain the support of an SSE Renewables Community Investment Manager to provide advice and guidance as required.
- Successful applicants should begin drawing down grant funds within one year of being awarded. Long-term projects (such as building work or multi-year projects) will be released in stages and must demonstrate progress within one year of award.
- SSE Renewables is committed to understanding the social impact of the fund. One of the key requirements of successful applicants is to monitor and evaluate your project.
- We use an Outcomes Report based on Big Society Capital's Social Outcomes Matrix. Applicants will be asked to identify project outcomes at the start of the grant period and to confirm outcomes achieved at the end of project. We require successful applicants to provide copies of evaluation activity to SSE Renewables.
- We also ask that funded organisations develop and adopt a Climate Action Plan or Net Zero Action Plan. If your organisation does not have one already, you can find out how to put a plan in place at climateconfident.scot

What cannot be funded?

- Projects which do not meet the Sustainable Development Fund criteria
- Projects which do not benefit people living within the Perth & Kinross Council boundary
- Individuals, or groups without a constitution
- The advancement of religion or politics (including requests to support the core activities of religious or political groups)
- The repayment of loans or payment of debts
- VAT costs that can be recovered
- Trips abroad
- Costs already incurred or activities which will take place before we have made a decision on an application (retrospective funding).
